OUR STORY

Since 2002, International Version Trading and Projects ("IVT") has been rooted in the art and industry of mink blanket making. For more than two decades, we have devoted ourselves to a single pursuit: crafting blankets of exceptional quality that bring warmth and comfort into homes around the world.

Our philosophy has always balanced two commitments — relentless refinement and the courage to innovate. We continuously perfect every detail of our craftsmanship, from fibre selection to finishing, while never hesitating to embrace new materials, patterns, and technologies that keep pace with an ever-evolving market.

This year marks a significant milestone in our journey: we are proud to have invested in a brand-new, fully integrated production line. This expansion strengthens our manufacturing capacity, elevates our quality control, and allows us to better serve and satisfy our customers' growing and diversifying needs.

"Quality is refined, not finished — and innovation is the courage to keep improving."
